

SJW Group Announces Postponement of San Jose Water's Cost of Capital Filing

SAN JOSE, Calif.--(March 12, 2020) SJW Group (NYSE: SJW) announced today that its wholly owned subsidiary, San Jose Water, along with three other California water utilities (the "Joint Parties") received a letter dated March 11, 2020 from the Executive Director of the California Public Utilities Commission ("CPUC") granting the Joint Parties' request to postpone their scheduled 2020 Cost of Capital ("COC") filings to May 1, 2021.

On January 22, 2020 the Joint Parties filed a request for a one-year postponement of their COC filings otherwise scheduled to be filed on May 1, 2020. Pursuant to the CPUC's rate case plan, the Joint Parties are required to file their COC applications on a triennial basis. Postponing the filing for one year alleviates administrative processing costs for both the Joint Parties and CPUC staff.

Forward-Looking Statements

This release contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, as amended. Some of these forward-looking statements can be identified by the use of forward-looking words such as "believes," "expects," "may," "will," "should," "seeks," "approximately," "intends," "plans," "estimates," "projects," "strategy," or "anticipates," or the negative of those words or other comparable terminology. The accuracy of such statements is subject to a number of risks, uncertainties and assumptions including, but not limited to, the following factors: (1) the effect of water, utility, environmental and other governmental policies and regulations, including actions concerning rates, authorized return on equity, authorized debt-to-equity ratios, capital expenditures and other decisions; (2) changes in demand for water and other products and services; (3) unanticipated weather conditions and changes in seasonality; (4) climate change and the effects thereof; (5) catastrophic events such as fires, earthquakes, explosions, floods, ice storms, tornadoes, hurricanes, terrorist acts, physical attacks, cyber-attacks, or other similar occurrences that could adversely affect our facilities, operations, financial condition, results of operations and reputation; (6) unexpected costs, charges or expenses; (7) our ability to successfully evaluate investments in new business and growth initiatives; (8) the risk of work stoppages, strikes and other labor-related actions; (9) changes in general economic, political, business and financial market conditions; (10) the ability to obtain financing on favorable terms, which can be affected by various factors, including credit ratings, changes in interest rates, compliance with regulatory requirements, compliance with the terms and conditions of our outstanding indebtedness, and general market and economic conditions; and (11) legislative and economic developments. Results for a quarter are not indicative of results for a full year due to seasonality and other factors. In addition, actual results are subject to other risks and uncertainties that relate more broadly to our overall business, including those more fully described in our filings with the SEC, including our most recent reports on Form 10-K, Form 10-Q and Form 8-K. Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of performance, and speak only as of the date made, and we undertake no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements except as required by law.
