

SJW Group Comments on Amended Merger Agreement with Connecticut Water

San Jose, CA – May 31, 2018 – SJW Group (NYSE: SJW) today issued the following statement regarding its amended merger agreement with Connecticut Water Service, Inc. (NASDAQ: CTWS) (“Connecticut Water”):

“SJW Group’s Board of Directors continues to believe that SJW Group’s merger with Connecticut Water has the potential to create significant immediate and long-term value for SJW Group’s stockholders and benefits for the company’s customers, all of its employees and the communities SJW Group serves.

“The waiver of the non-solicitation covenant in our merger agreement underscores our confidence in the superior value and strategic merits of our transaction with Connecticut Water.

“Our merger agreement has been amended to allow Connecticut Water to speak with other companies over the next 45 days to verify and validate the value of our merger.

“Predictably, California Water Service Group’s (NYSE: CWT) (“Cal Water”) criticism ignores the fact that the SJW Group Board of Directors has already determined that Cal Water’s non-binding indication of interest is neither a superior proposal nor reasonably likely to lead to one. Unlike Connecticut Water’s shareholders, who are being asked to vote in favor of a transaction that would see their shares of Connecticut Water exchanged for shares of SJW Group, SJW Group stockholders will remain invested in their shares of SJW Group following completion of the merger with Connecticut Water. Under these circumstances, SJW Group’s Board of Directors believes that there is no need for SJW Group to have a “go-shop” provision, and Cal Water’s inferior, non-binding indication of interest does nothing to alter that belief.

“We remain committed to our signed, definitive agreement to merge with Connecticut Water as the superior path forward for our stockholders and all of our constituents. We continue to work toward completing the merger during the fourth quarter 2018.”
